

THINKING NOTES FOR ES PQS

Use this checklist to annotate readings and class notes.

Use an asterisk to indicate the main idea or the author's claim

Use an exclamation point to indicate places where you made a connection or had a reaction to the information provided

Use a question mark to indicate where you may be confused, don't know vocabulary, or have an additional question. Write the question in a comment or the margin

Underline or highlight pieces of evidence that support the main idea or claim

Double underline or highlight, in a different color, reasoning that the author uses to connect evidence to the main idea